CLAIMS FORTUNE LEFT BY FRENCHMAN

Rhode Islander Contest Estate With Relatives.

WILL LEAVES HIM PROPERTY

Moses Poulet Disappeared in 1891—Certificate Records Death in Rio Janeiro.

PARIS, July 15.—George A. Church, of Nayattpoint, R. I., is petitioning the tribunal of the Seine to declare him the universal legatee of a Frenchman named Moses Poulet, who has not been seen since 1891, when he was in Australia.

Poulet's natural heirs in 1903 fulfilled the formalities of the law and obtained possession of Poulet's fortune of 130,000 francs.

Produced a Will.
Mr. Church intervened, producing a will in accordance with his claim, the document dated Java, 1890, and a death certificate dated Rio de Janeiro. The heirs contest the validity of the will.

The judge, mindful of the celebrated Crawford case, which involved the same heirs in jail, requested Mr. Church's counsel to produce the plaintiff by July 15. Counsel replied that Mr. Church left New York a fortnight ago, and should have arrived here.

The hearing was adjourned.

Is a Wealthy Man.
PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 14.—George A. Church, of Nayattpoint, about thirty years old, son of warden of St. John's Episcopal Church at Nayattpoint, has abundance of wealth of his own.

Mr. Church passes about half his time in Europe. He always takes in the great Wagnerian music festivals and spends much time in Baden-Baden.

It is believed here that he met Moses Poulet at Java, where the reported will was executed years ago, and that the bequest was as a testimonial of friendship growing out of long acquaintance.

The will was dated at Sim-Tan-Gala in the island of Java.

HYATTSVILLE NOTES.

HYATTSVILLE, July 15.—Miss Ivy Drury while waiting for a Hyattsville car at North Capitol Street and New York Avenue yesterday afternoon was run down by a man on a bicycle. Besides a severe neck shock her nose was broken and her face considerably bruised. On her arrival at home Dr. Herberich prescribed medicine for the effects of an injury on the forehead received in a game of football Saturday. His condition is considered by Dr. Perry, attending physician, as critical.

At a cave-in of the sewer ditch on Maryland Avenue yesterday two laborers narrowly escaped being buried alive.

CHOLERA INFANTUM.

Child Not Expected to Live From One Hour to Another, But Cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Ruth, the little daughter of E. N. Dewey, of Agnewville, Va., was seriously ill of cholera infantum last summer. "I gave her up and did not expect her to live from one hour to another," he says. "I happened to think of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy and got a bottle of it from the store. In five hours I saw a change for the better. We kept on giving it, and before she had taken the half of one bottle she was well." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.
